Your letter of the first day of this month that was addressed to the Vigo County Historical Society was given by them to me here at the Vigo County Public Library. This is because the local historical society usually does not have enough staff time to answer genealogical queries such as yours.

I understand you are researching the Simon Akers family of Linton (and Pierson) Townships, Vigo County IN. I also gather that you have seen the 1850 Vigo County Census for that family. What you may not have seen is the 1860 Census (pg. 441) which lists the family.

Simon Akers - 59, farmer, real estate valued at $750, personal property at $200, born in Ky.

Malinda - 45,

Benjamin 20, Thomas 18, Meridith 16, Agnes 9, Levi L.7, Enis M. 2.

The library could make a photocopy of the above for 30¢ (including postage) if you are interested in having one.

"S. Akers" is listed on the 1858 Vigo County Plat map that is the oldest in existence. He is also listed in the 1874 Atlas. The Linton-Pierson Township boundary line cut his 74 acre farm almost in half.

I did not find him listed in either our surname or "catchfile." However, many Akers were married in Vigo County though I did not find a record for "your" Simon and Malinda. We have two marriage record indexes. One is for 1818-50; the other is for 1840-1920. Photocopies of these would probably cost close to a dollar since the women with the Akers maiden name are scattered throughout the book.

Some of the early Akers marriages were James to Nancy Welch (1834), Joseph to Hulday Eddy Starke (1844), Norman to Resenah Whittaker (1840), and Wm. G. to Sarah Taylor (1837).

We also have Vigo County Cemetery Records, but from your last letter I gather you may have seen them. Perhaps you did not know that an Isaac N. AKERS D. July 31, 1877, and was also buried at the Brown Cemetery. He was 62.

Vols. 2 and 5 of Vigo County Bible Records also list Akers,

J. Parker Forsman, Ph. D.
November 9, 1983

but I did not see any connection between these first names and the ones you mentioned.

Dorrel's Index to the various Vigo County histories lists a Rev. A. J. Akers, Drury, Esther Ann, Hannah, James, Polly, Ruth, and one reference to a Simon Akers. However, this library does not have the reference material that Dorrel lists regarding Simon.

The library does have a rather complete file of old Terre Haute newspapers some of which might possibly have Akers obituaries. However, the problem there is that a century ago not too many "country peoples" deaths were listed in the old Terre Haute newspapers.

Finally I'll mention that the library could send you xerox copies of maps of the area (Linton-Pierson Townships) where the Akers lived and were buried, but the cost would necessarily depend on how many items you wanted. Our charge is 10¢ per page plus postage. For $3.50 or $4 we could send you most, if not all, of the material I have mentioned above.

Because the Akers entries are limited in number in the Vigo County Histories, I do not think inter-library loan would be very helpful to you. There are 39 Akers listed in the current Terre Haute telephone book. We could xerox a copy of that page for you if you wish. It would probably be simpler to write the local genealogy column, c/o Mrs. Dorothy Clark, Tribune-Star Publishing Company, 721 Wabash Ave., Terre Haute IN 47807.

Dear Historians:

I am searching for genealogical records of an ancestral family member who at one time res. Linton Twp., Vigo Co., IN (1850 Census). His name was SIMON AKERS (or Acres, etc.), b. c. 1800, prob. Shelby Co., KY, son of Benjamin and Katherine (Malone) Akers of KY. He is prob. the same Simon Akers who is bur. Brown Cemetery, Pierson Twp., Vigo Co., d. 21 March 1874 ae 73-8-28. Also bur. there is a Malinda Akers, d. 16 February 1868, ae 56 y. According to a letter written 1871 by a nephew, Spencer Collings Akers of IA, his uncle Simon Akers m. a Malinda _____ and they settled in Vigo Co. and raised a large family. The inscription copied by Nelson Eddy incorrectly states that Malinda Akers was his dau. He would have been 12 when Malinda was born.

I have written the County Clerk for records of the Akers family but the office can't seem to locate any.

Perhaps your library might contain an Akers family history or a local history that mentions this family. Or perhaps there is a descendant now living in the County with whom I could correspond. Or, perhaps there are early periodicals on microfilm that you could lend through inter-library loan.

Any assistance you could give me would be most appreciated, and I would gladly pay for any expenses involved.

Sincerely

J. Parker Forsman

Dear Librarian:

I am searching for records of members of the Akers family, in particular Drury and Simon Akers, who settled in Vigo county in the 1830-1850 period and who have numerous descendants now living in the County.

advise him to write Dorothy
Clark's column

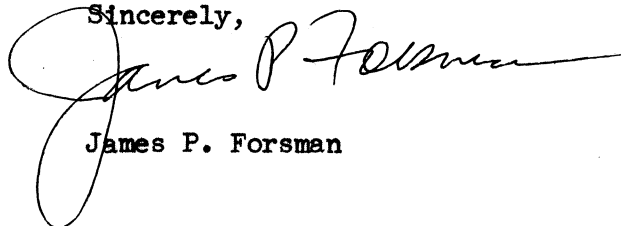

I would be most appreciative if you would check your files to see if there is any material on the Akers family. I would, of course, be glad to pay costs of copying.

Also, I was wondering if you would check your card files for Akers records in family histories and the like that the library has. This would be for anyone of that surname, regardless of state.

We have most of the histories of Vigo County and Terre Haute in our library here and I have already copied the pages with references to Akers in them. (Bradley, Gookins, etc.)

I would be most appreciative of any help that you could give me.

Sincerely,

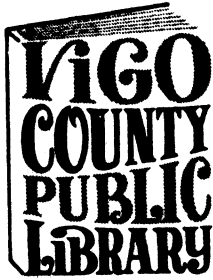

James P. Forsman

Indiana Biographical Index contains numerous references to various Akers who have biographical sketches in Indiana county histories. Drury & Limon are not listed. This is not an every name index; only the principles in biographical sketches have been included. This index is on microfiche and we do not have a fiche printer. Nor do we have all the sources indexed. The index was produced by Genealogical Indexing Associates, PO Box 102, West Bountiful UT 84087. SOME NOTES ON THE EARLY STARK FAMILIES
IN VERNON TOWNSHIP, WASHINGTON COUNTY, INDIANA

Written in 1952 by

ROY E. HARDIN

INTRODUCTION

In presenting this history of the Stark families, I must first of all acknowledge the help I have received from the relationship of many of the Stark relatives who have helped to make the collection of material concerning the family.

I do not claim that this work is either perfect or complete. What is here presented is only what by diligent effort I have been able to gather from the past. While very much research work has been done, I leave this study and writing in your hands for perusal.

STARK FAMILY BACKGROUND.

The Stark families do not descend from General John Stark of New Hampshire and Bennington fame of our family tree. Mr. Howard P. Moore of New York City has written a complete genealogy of the General John Stark family that shows this. The Stark families of which I write descend from a still older immigrant family. It appears that the Vernon Township Stark families descend from either Aaron Stark who settled in Groton, Connecticut, as early as 1653, or from James Stark of Stafford County, Virginia, who came from Scotland and who died in Stafford County, Virginia in 1754.

Corr.

Aaron Stark, first settler of that name died in what is now Groton, Connecticut, in 1685. The origin of the Stark family in this country has not been definitely settled. Tradition in the Groton branch of the family makes them of Scotch ancestry. In Scotland the family name is an old one. Aaron Stark fought in the Pequot War. Aaron Stark's son, William Stark, was instrumental in organizing the First Baptist Church in Connecticut, in 1705, and the first meeting was held in William Stark's house. The Stark Family Association, North Plain, Connecticut, has published a copy of the early history of the Aaron Stark family. This association meets once a year and publishes a yearly bulletin of Stark families and relation.

I will give you a brief history of the early Starks from whom most of the Stark folks in southern Indiana have descended. As early as 1784, six Stark brothers had settled on Forman's Creek in Nelson County, Kentucky. These men were: (1) Jonathan Stark with wife Margaret; (2) Christopher Stark with wife Martha Vineyard; (3) James Stark with wife Mary Howell; (4) Daniel Stark with wife Elizabeth Wells; (5) Joseph Stark with wife Hannah; and (6) John Stark. These men were in Washington County, Pennsylvania during the Revolution.

Jonathan was a Baptist preacher. Christopher (my great, great grandfather). James and Daniel served in the Washington County (Pa.) militia. These brothers later settled in Shelby and Henry Counties, Kentucky. We know that old Christopher Stark and old Daniel Stark were in Virginia as early as 1775, for their names appear on Virginia Militia Roll of soldiers paid off at Romney. With them served Stephen Vineyard. Some genealogists claim that the Vineyard family came directly to Virginia from England. One Jonathan Stark and wife Mary, who lived in Clay County, Indiana, in 1850, stated he was 77 years old and was born in Virginia. Hence this Jonathan was born in Virginia in 1773.

A land grant of 5000 acres was received by Bolling Stark in Jefferson County, Kentucky, in 1783. Bolling Stark was a native of Prince William County, Virginia. Jonathan, Joseph, James, Daniel, Christopher, and John owned large tracts near each other in Kentucky. It appears to me that these men may stem from the Virginia Starks.

Jonathan, Christopher, James, Daniel and Joseph all died in Kentucky, and none of them left a will. From the estate settlements and from the marriage bonds of their children, it is found to distinguish among their respective sets of children fairly well. There were many intermarriages among the children (cousin marriages) and this has caused some difficulty since no distinction is made between sons and sons-in-law in the estate settlements of the different families.

The youngest brother, John Stark, later moved with the younger generation into Scott County, Indiana, and left a will naming his 8 children. Hereafter, in my writing, when referring to one of the above brothers who came to Kentucky, I shall designate them as "old" Christopher Stark, "old" James Stark, etc.

There was an Ashel Stark with wife Sarah and nine children who had five children: (a) Enclitus Cordylus, (b) Amy Awilda, (c) Ora Elmer, (d) Alma Grace, and (e) Paul Horetus.

(4) Charles Boswell Stark, born February 2, 1856, in Kentucky; married Affie Bowden at North Bend, Nebraska, in 1880, and died January 14, 1928. He had six children: (a) Albert A., (b) James Abraham, (c) Gertrude, (d) Elmer E., (e) Linsey, and (f) Benjamin Bowden.

(5) Sarah Josephine Stark was born July 4, 1861; married Francis Marion Fingo, in Greene County, Indiana; settled near Linton, where she died January 16, 1909. She had six children; (a) John Abraham, (b) Charles Edgar, (c) Victoria Elvira, (d) Lochiel Ellen, (e) Dorothy Florence, and (f) Lois Edna.

(6) Minerva Lucretia Stark was born October 12, 1889; was married to Rufus Gilbert Hawk in Greene County, Indiana, on August 6, 1883; settled near Linton, Indiana, where she died April 15, 1898. She had three children: (a) Benjamin, (b) Leonard, and (c) Chloe Mae.

X JOSEPH LEONARD STARK FAMILY.

Joseph Leonard Stark, son of "old" John Stark, was an early settler in Vernon Township, Washington County, Indiana. He had a wife, Sarah Akers, whom he married in Henry County, Kentucky, and four children under 10 years of age in Washington County, Indiana, at the time of the 1820 census. Among his children were: (a) William, (b) Indiana, (c) Lucinda, and (d) Catherine. By 1830 census he had removed to Scott County, Indiana, and settled at Lexington near his father and by that time none of his seven children were fifteen years of age.
